

We celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Cleo Rogers Memorial Library building and the life of its namesake and long-time director Cleo Rogers.

Bartholomew
County
Public Library

“Community Crossroads for Lifelong Learning”

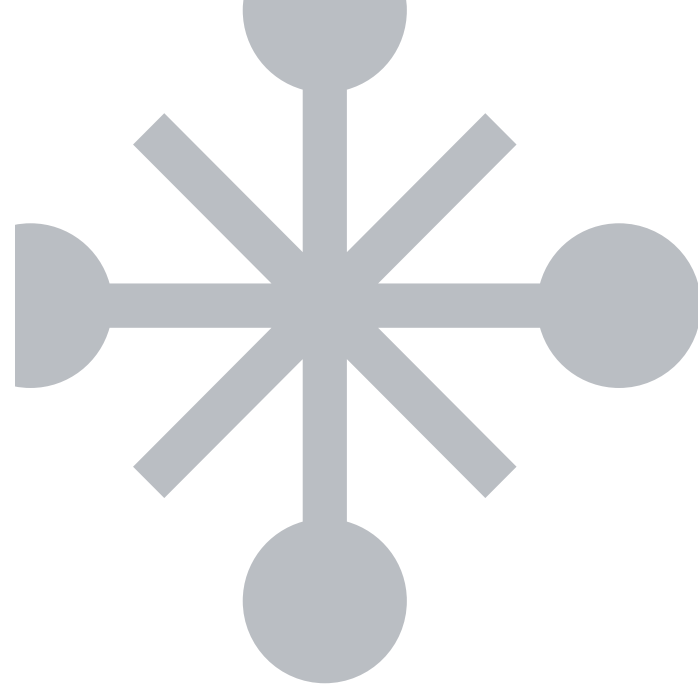

The Bartholomew County Public Library is the community crossroads – connecting people, information, ideas, and experiences to empower everyone on their journey of lifelong learning.

We reclaimed the symbol designed in 1969, and used it to refresh our branding for the library system. We also updated our mission statement to more accurately reflect the work of a 21st century public library.

Library Board of Trustees and Administration

Billie Whitted, President
Vern Jorck, Vice President
Brenda Tallent, Treasurer
Gary Gron, Secretary
Monta Frazier

Angela Weineke
Mike Wilkerson
Michael McIver, Library Attorney
Jason Hatton, Library Director
Angela Eck, Assistant Director

Annual Report

Bartholomew County Public Library

mybcpl.org

816,269

Items Checked Out

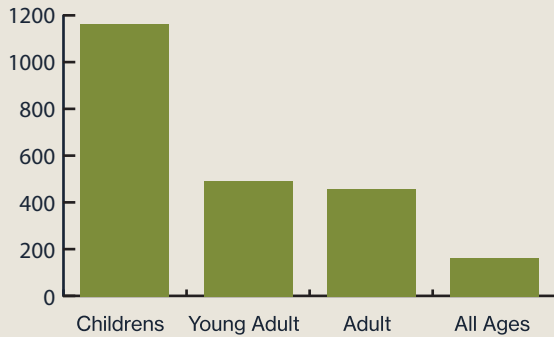

Total Circulation ↑ 11%

2,294

Programs Offered

↑ 29%

Programs Offered

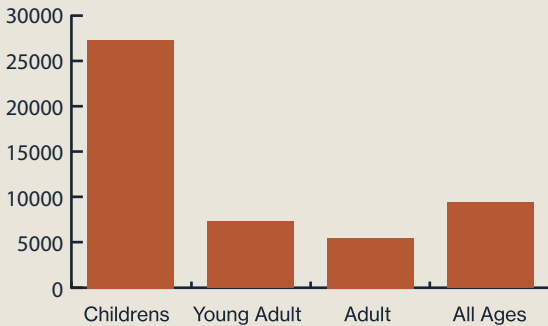

49,614

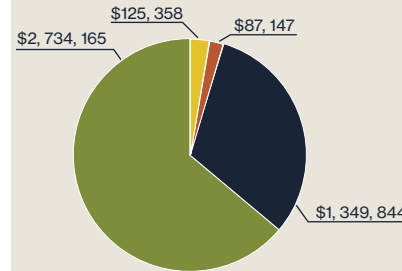

Program Attendance

↑ 22%

Program Attendance

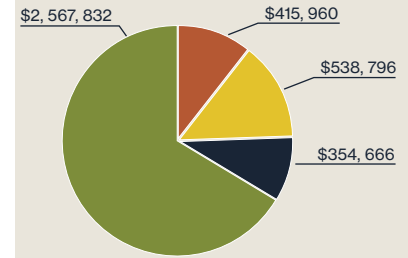

Revenue

- Property Tax
- Local Income Tax
- Excise and Financial Institution Tax
- Fines, Fees, Grants, Interest, and Other

Expenses

- Salaries and Benefits
- Utilities, Supplies, and Insurance
- Materials and Equipment
- Services

An Average Day at BCPL

- 905 Visitors
- 1941 Checkouts of Physical Items
- 467 Checkouts of Digital Items
- 165 Holds Placed on Physical Items
- 150 Uses of Our Online Learning Resources
- 7 Programs Attended by 146 People
- 147 Uses of Library Computers
- 88.3 GB of Data Transferred Over Public WiFi
 - Equivalent of 225 hours of Online Gaming
 - 225 Hours of Streaming Audio
 - AND 215 Hours of Streaming HD Video