

BARTHOLOMEW COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

POLICY FOR PROGRAM PROVIDERS

- A. Programming for adults and children is provided free of charge by BCPL.

- B. BCPL staff members conduct programs.
 - 1. Outside guests may be obtained to present program segments, though the programs are planned by BCPL personnel.
 - 2. Outside guests normally donate their services.
 - 3. Any fee paid to outside program providers is funded by the Bartholomew County Library Associates.

- C. Programming is selected and scheduled so as not to duplicate or conflict with programming of other Columbus and Bartholomew County agencies.
 - 1. BCPL will seek to provide cooperative programming with other agencies such as Columbus Area Arts Council, Parks & Recreation, Historical Society, Wellness Program, Foundation for Youth, and local schools, and public other programming groups.

- D. Program content and/or program site may require that the age and number of participants be limited.
 - 1. These limits are stated on all publicity about the program.
