1. At its discretion, the library will provide a bulletin board and space for pamphlets, flyers, newsletters, and any other items that promote not-for-profit activities and education opportunities in Bartholomew County or in Indiana.

   A. The decision to display any promotion is made by the library staff on case-by-case basis.

2. A not-for-profit group using a library meeting room may distribute pamphlets, flyers, newsletters, and other items to persons attending the meeting.

   A. Items can be distributed only during the meeting and only in the meeting room.

3. Restricted from the library property (including parking lots and Visitors Center grounds) are the following:

   A. Food sales by vendors not recruited by the Bartholomew County Public Library or the Visitors Center.

   B. Any entertainment or exhibition not recruited by Bartholomew County Public Library or the Visitors Center.

   C. Pamphlets and other advertisements or solicitations for:
       political parties and candidates trade unions / collective bargaining groups religious groups not-for-profit charities and associations profit-making companies and organizations any individual or groups of individuals promoting a concept or product

Operating Policy: Solicitations

June 2001